

Members Only

(Philipp Fankhauser)

Members only, it's a private party
Don't need no money to qualify
Don't bring your checkbook, bring your broken heart
'Cause it's members only tonight

Say you lost your woman, say you lost your mind
Got a lot of problems, mmmh in your life
Say we're throwing a party for the brokenhearted
And it's members only tonight

Go tell mama, go tell daddy
Red or yellow, black or white
Say we're throwing a party, baby, for the sad and lonely
It's members only tonight

Members only, it's a private party
Don't need no money to qualify
Don't bring your checkbook, bring your broken heart
'Cause it's members only tonight

Solo

Say you lost your woman, say you lost your mind
Got a lot of problems, mmmh in your life
Say we're throwing a party for the brokenhearted
It's members only tonight

Members only, it's a private party
Don't need no money to qualify
Don't bring your checkbook, bring your broken heart
'Cause it's members only tonight

It's members only tonight
'Cause it's members only tonight
It's members only tonight
